ARMY TORN BY COURT-MARTIAL

Trial of General Wood's Accuser Causes Big Stir in Philippines.

HEARING NOW IN PROGRESS

HHOfficer's Letter, Charging President's Friend With Malicious Prosecution, Made Public.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 14.—Advices from the Philippines say army circles there are all torn up over the trial by courtmartial of Captain, L. M. Koehler, Fourth Cavairy, for accusing General Leonard Wood, the President's chum and commander of the Philippine division, of malicious prosecution and other illegal acts, in order to protect General Wood's friend, Major Hugh L. Scott, who was charged with violation of regulations by Captain Koehler.

For bringing the charges against Major Scott, Koehler was courtmartialed by order of General Wood, convicted and reprimanded. As a result, Captain Koehler wrote a letter to the Secretary of War, making the serious accusation recited above against General Wood, For this he was ordered to be again tourtmartialed on charges of insubordination. This courtmartial is now going on in the Philippines.

In his letter to the Secretary of War complaining of the manner in which his first courtmartial was conducted, Captain Koehler used this language:

"The severity, even to harshness, of the reprimand administered shows prejuchler used this language: The severity, even to harshness, of reprimand administered shows preju-"The severity, even to harmness, of the reprimand administered shows prejudice, bias, unfairness and a preconceived conviction that I was guilty as originally charged. There was no evidence produced by the prosecution to show that my charges against Major Scott were malicious, yet the reviewing authority (General Wood) insists that I should have been found guilty, as charged, without any evidence to support such allegations. "The case has so many irregular and unusual features, and I am so thoroughly possessed with the feeling that I have not been given a fair trial, but have been the victim of prejudice, bias and even malice, that I beg for a full and complete review of the case at the hands of the Secretary of War, with a view of the setting anide of the findings, sentence and reprimand."

ndicating that extensive preparations for flight were made by President Stensland, of the wrecked Milwaukee Avenue Bank, and that a woman entered into these preparations, was secured by Assistant State's Attorney Olson to-day, through the cross-examination of Mrs. Ellen McCracken, housekeeper for Stensland. It was learned that Stensland took with him, in trunks and boxes, sheets and other bedding, towels, window curtains, carpets, rugs and a silver dinner set. Some of this is said to have been traced to Baraboo. Wis., but a big trunk, said to have been taken by Stensland, the detectives have not been able to get a trace of, Telegrams have been sent to all parts of the world, asking the authorities to look for the trunk, which is said to be three feet high and bound with from.

The, box, traced to Baraboo, weighed 315 pounds when it was placed on an express wagon at the Stensland home, the day of the flight.

Another warrant against Henry W. Hering, cashler of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, charging, him with forging a note for $10,000 in the name of Marius S. Kirkeby, was issued to-day by Judge Kersten. The warrant was signed by Kirkeby.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., August 14.—The books of Gilbert and Clay, local brokers, with whom Alexander R. Chisolm, the defaulting paying teller of the First National Bank is alleged to have squandered $38,000 of the bank's funds in speculation, have been taken over by Assistant United States District Attorney Steale, who is prosecuting this firm and another for their alleged connection with the defalcation, by which the bank is the loser of $97,000. A warrant is out for P. G. Smith, manager of Foster and Company, brokers, charging him with alding and abetting Chisolm's embezzlement.

Chisolm is alleged to have squandered $71,500 of the bank's money with this firm. Chisolm is reported to have said to-day that his shortage at one time amounted to almost $150,000, but he made several winnings recently, one amounting to $30,000, which reduced his shortage to a little below $100,000.

The feeling against cotton and cotton exchanges, where, it is alleged Chisolm lost the stolem money, has become so pronounced that sixteen out of eighteen Aldermen of Birmingham to-day announced their determination to vote at to-morrow night's session of the City Council against the issuance of license to any commission, house dealing in futures in the city of Birmingham. THIRD VICTIM OF "WIDOW" APPEARS

Fifth-Avenue Furrier Says He Advanced About $1,000 to Mrs. Hamilton:

WOMAN APPEARS IN COURT

Husband Turns Up, Reveals Life Story, and Joins Hands With the Prosecution.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August 14.—A third compiaint against Mrs. Helen Hamilton, who was arrested last Friday on complaint of James C, McClellan, of Philadelphia, on a charge of having obtained money from him under profisise of marriage, was made to the Federal authorities to-day by a man 'who described himself as Count Gregory Zamiltoff, a Fifth Avenue furrier. He said that he had become engaged to marry Mrs. Hamilton and had advanced her about $1,000.

Mrs. Hamilton was arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields to-day on complaint of Leo Kelsier and Zamiltoff, and held on her own recognizance for a hearing on September 26th, at which time there will also be an examination into the charges preferred against her by McClollan.

NEW YORK, August 14.—Dupes of Mrs. Blna F. Verrault, otherwise "Mrs. Helen Hamilton," who engaged themselves to marry the fascinating "widow" and incidentally parted with their cash in lumps, met face to face the husband of the woman yesterday in the office of Francis J. Carmody, assistant United States district attorney, and had heart to heart talks with him. As a result, all resolved to devote themselves to bringing about the punishment of the nimble witted operator in the heart market.

While Verrault was telling his story the woman was hurrying away from the scenes of her financial coups. United States Marshal Henkel and his assistant, who had gone to her house, No. 223 West Eighty-second Street, with a second warrant for her arrest on the charge of swindling through the mails, in which Keisler was complainant, found she had disappeared, and although Marx & Miller, her attorneys, subsequently assured United States Commissioner Shields she would be in the Federal building by 3 o'clock, she did not fulfil their assurances. Met Her in Philadelphia.

Met Her in Philadelphia.

Verrault said he met her in Philadelphia in 1902, as Mrs. Brown, a widow, and after three months married her. Within a week sha was arrested for shoplifting and intoxication. They moved to Baltimore, and then to New York, where, he said, she contracted debts with many dry goods firms, notably one of $5,000 with H. B. Chaflin & Co. These transactions impelled him to leave her, and he has not lived with her since. Being a Roman Catholte he has not sought a divorce. A year ago she lured him into a dark street, where he was set upon by five men, his wife and two other women, and severely beaten.

She and five brothers half from Nova Scotia.

Information lodged with the authorities is that two of the men in the house have served time in the State prison in Spring-field, Mass., for playing the badger game upon a farmer in New England. One of these men has been arrested many times in Boston for swindling as a spirit medium. It also is said they opened a grocery store in Lake Street, Chicago, and sold for cash the stock they had bought on credit, and then caused the arrest of the buyer for removing stolen property. Two women in the place were connected with the blackmall of a captain of police two years ago, when they lived in West Thirty-third street, near Broadway.

It is said many men in Wall Street have been invelged into the Eighty-second Street house and robbed. More than a score have offered to make complaints before Mr. Garmody, but as the offenses charged by them have been against the State law helpas been obliged to refer them to District Attorney-Jerome.
